To Whom It May Concern:

The Kinesiology Professional Association (KPA) is a non profit student organization dedicated to helping promote healthy living and wellness for its members and the community. One of our missions is to support students in attaining their career goals in various allied health fields. Either as an individual or an establishment, you can assist us in our fund raising efforts!

Our vision is to have an online silent auction similar to EBAY. By donating an item to our online auction, you will not only enhance the education of students at the University of Louisiana of Lafayette, but allow our members to invest in their future by attending conferences and workshops. Donating items for the auction will be mutually beneficial by creating publicity and advertising for your business on our official KPA website, (<http://www.louisiana.edu/kpa>) Any items would be gladly accepted!

Last but not least, your donation is tax deductible! After the online auction is concluded, we will send you a copy of the receipt for how much your item helped us raise thus claiming this amount as a charitable donation to the KPA.

The KPA needs your help!

Items can be picked up in person or mailed to:
Mr. Johan J. Adendorff or Ms. Paula Williams
