

A letter from your president...

Dear Prospective Student:

It's a pleasure to welcome you for Preview Day. Each year, thousands of high school students just like you visit us and learn about what UL Lafayette has to offer.

Some national publications attest to the status that our university has achieved. The Princeton Review cites UL Lafayette among the nation's top 15 percent of institutions for undergraduate education in its 2017 edition of the "The Best 381 Colleges." U.S. News and World Report includes the University in the national universities category of its 2017 guidebook of best colleges. Washington Monthly's 2016 College Guide ranks us in the top half of National Universities.

Fall 2016 semester numbers paint an impressive portrait of our first-time freshmen. We're attracting freshmen who are better-prepared academically than ever before. The Class of 2020 includes more than 160 high school valedictorians, which is also a school record.

So, you'll be in good company here.

You'll find lots to do on campus and in the community. You can cheer on the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns and enjoy food and festivals rooted in our distinctive Cajun and Creole cultures. And, you can make new friends by joining one or more of the nearly 200 clubs and organizations on campus.

You'll be a valued member of our community. UL Lafayette is large enough to offer over 100 majors and academic concentrations, plus all the rich experiences found at other well-respected universities. But, with a student-to faculty ratio of 22 to 1, it's personal enough to ensure that you'll become well-acquainted with your professors and fellow students.

The University is investing aggressively in facilities that enhance the living and learning experience for our students. New suite-style student residences and the expansion and renovation of the Student Union have enriched the vibrancy of campus life. We have expanded the student fitness center; it offers an array of exercise equipment and one of the finest student aquatic centers in the South. And, we are continuing to make improvements across campus.

Above all, everyone at UL Lafayette is committed to student success. Our intention is to make each student's college experience as fulfilling as possible.

Thank you for visiting our campus. If you have any questions after today, please call on one of our admissions counselors at any time.

Sincerely,
E. Joseph Savoie
President

DR. E. JOSEPH SAVOIE
